

FJCL REGIONAL LATIN FORUM 2017
ADVANCED DERIVATIVES

Choose the best meaning of each underlined English word based on a Latin root.

1. The man was uneasy over his wife's surreptitious behavior.
A. secret B. swift C. unrelenting D. cruel
2. The full moon reflected off of the placid lake with refulgent glory.
A. bent B. constant C. shining D. subdued
3. Despite his dilatory tactics, the student had to take his test.
A. delaying B. clever C. immoral D. laughable
4. When presenting his scientific theories, the professor was intransigent.
A. indifferent B. uncompromising C. undecided D. inconsistent
5. The waitress approached the table with a beatific expression on her face.
A. angry B. reluctant C. attractive D. happy
6. The path to the cabin was slow and sinuous.
A. steep B. rough C. long D. winding
7. The geologists found the deposits they were excavating to be ossiferous.
A. exposed B. containing bones C. hardened D. volcanic
8. The boy's parents saw him grow more and more fatuous with each passing year.
A. loving B. overweight C. foolish D. selfish
9. The girl was lachrymose after her birthday party.
A. excited B. exhausted C. tearful D. lonely
10. The biologist was an expert on arenicolous species of plants and animals.
A. snow-dwelling B. forest-dwelling C. mountain-dwelling D. sand-dwelling

Choose the English word that is derived from the given Latin word.

11. aevum
A. avid B. primeval C. evil D. alleviate
12. fruor
A. profound B. frustrate C. fruit D. defraud
13. fors
A. fort B. fortuitous C. effort D. comfort

29. patent
 A. open B. suffer C. obey D. beget
30. scintillation
 A. ring B. small C. spark D. moisten

Choose the word that does NOT belong by derivation.

31. A. fertilize B. isolate C. translate D. conifer
32. A. cadence B. decide C. incident D. cadaver
33. A. battery B. battle C. batter D. baton
34. A. lacquer B. lactic C. lettuce D. latte
35. A. lava B. allow C. alluvial D. laundry
36. A. vector B. velocity C. veteran D. inveigh
37. A. cabbage B. captain C. biceps D. captive
38. A. bulge B. budge C. boiler D. bouillon
39. A. pint B. depict C. poignant D. paint
40. A. peculiar B. pecuniary C. pectoral D. peculate

Choose the English derivative that best completes each sentence.

41. Her snide remarks created an atmosphere that was _____ and uninviting.
 A. venal B. tenebrous C. diffident D. salubrious
42. Some worried that the boy was destined to be a(n) _____, but those who were closest to him saw him as virtuous and misunderstood.
 A. reprobate B. benefactor C. funambulist D. apiarist
43. The newspaper criticized the senator’s speech as being overly-technical, _____, and generally unintelligible.
 A. sartorial B. meritorious C. luminous D. sesquipedalian
44. The defendant could barely restrain his anger, giving the lying witness a _____ look.
 A. pusillanimous B. minatory C. despondent D. lugubrious

45. Long hair and beards were the dominant _____ fashion of the 19th century.
A. fastidious B. aggrieving C. recalcitrant D. tonsorial
46. The convict was disappointed in his lawyer's failed attempts to _____ him.
A. exculpate B. expatiate C. excoriate D. extirpate
47. After a lengthy delay, the deceased man's remains were finally interred in a(n) _____.
A. ossicle B. sudatorium C. vagary D. cinerarium
48. The news of the senator's resignation _____ very quickly among his supporters.
A. condescended B. culminated C. propagated D. litigated
49. The flickering candle provided only a _____ glow in the dark of night.
A. desultory B. lambent C. flamboyant D. relucet
50. The _____ air swept across the snow-capped mountains and swooped down through the valley, freezing everything in its path.
A. gelid B. nubilous C. desiccated D. nefarious