

2010 FJCL State Latin Forum

Classical Art

Questions #26-29

Questions #30-32

Black-figure hydria
This vase is a hydria, a type of vase used for carrying water. It is decorated with a female figure, possibly a personification of Justice or a deity, wearing a long, patterned dress and holding a large, circular object. The vase is made of black clay and is decorated with black figures on a light background.

Questions #33-35

Questions #36-40

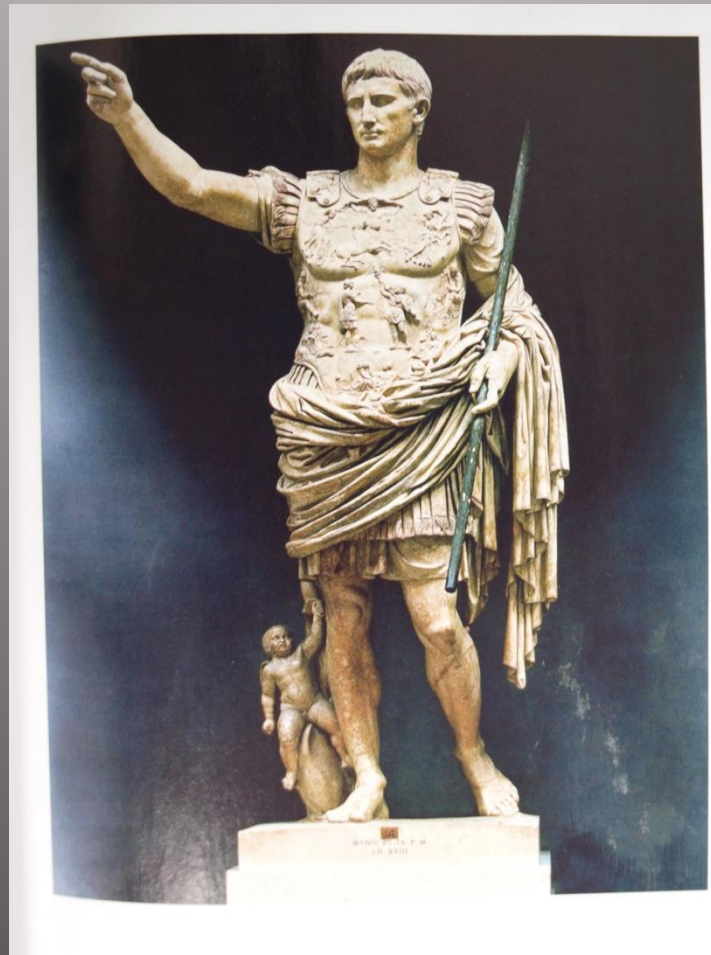

Questions #41-42

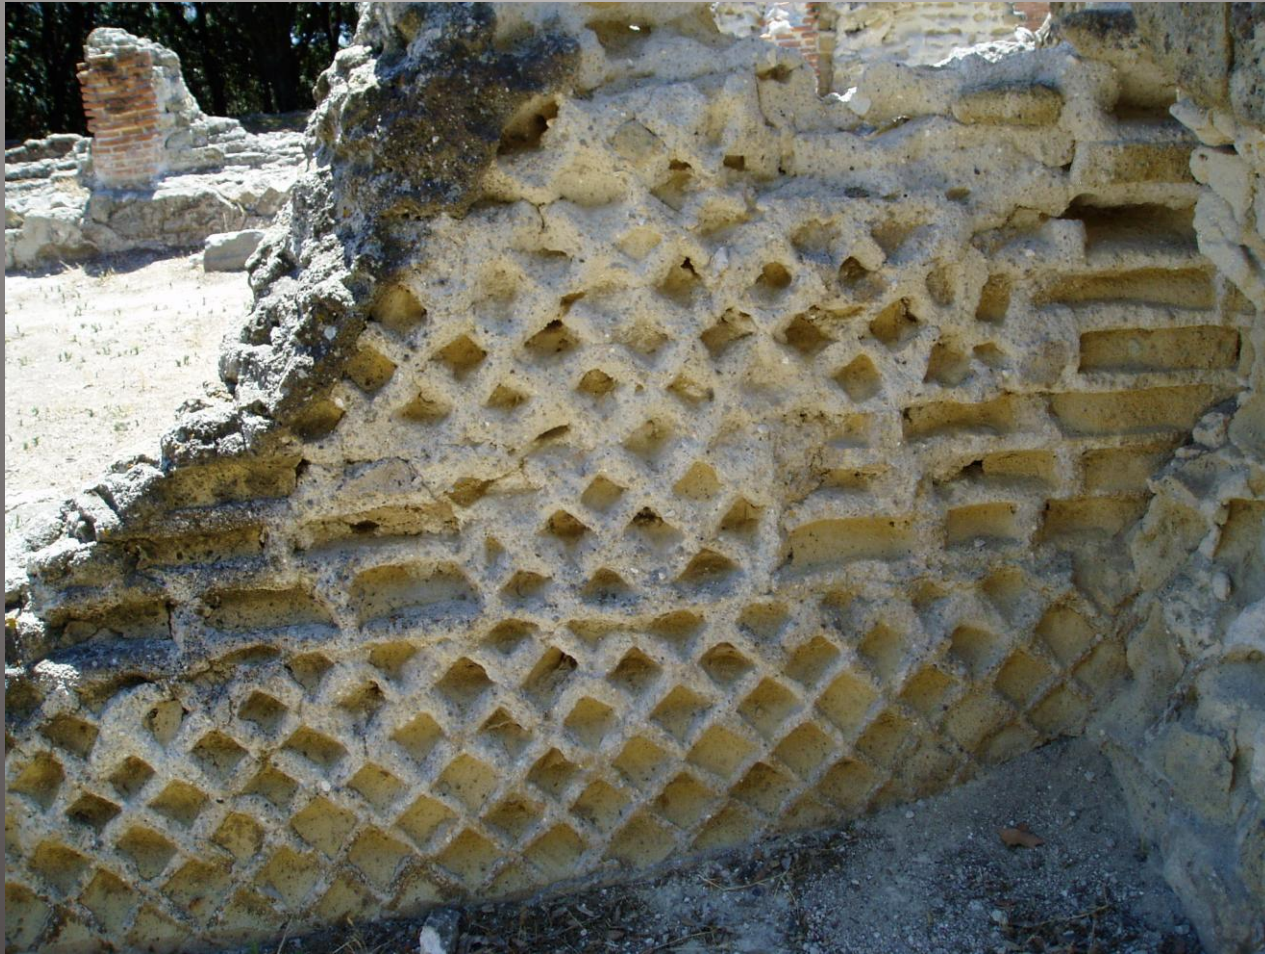

Questions #43-44

Questions #45-47

Question #48

Questions #49-50

