

2011 FJCL State Latin Forum Advanced Derivatives

Choose the closest English synonym to the underlined word.

1. He clandestinely plotted against the emperor.
a. furtively                      b. obsequiously                      c. indefinitely                      d. unwittingly
2. After a tough trial, the defendant was finally exonerated.
a. decapitated                      b. exculpated                      c. honored                      d. accused 3. From her countenance, her mother could discern she was lying.
a. ignore                      b. accept                      c. recognize                      d. reject
4. All she her comments last night in our conversation were simply vapid.
a. wonderful                      b. thoughtful                      c. uninteresting                      d. clichéd
5. His father deterred him from playing football.
a. interred                      b. commended                      c. contested                      d. dissuaded
6. That man lives quite a profligate life style.
a. frugal                      b. famous                      c. dissolute                      d. egregious 7. She found a cure for the lethal virus.
a. innocuous                      b. strenuous                      c. frondless                      d. pernicious
8. The SCL is indeed omniscient, omnipotent, omnipresent and indispensable.
a. awesome                      b. intelligent                      c. invincible                      d. ubiquitous 9. Trying to talk to him will only exacerbate the problem.
a. complicate                      b. infuriate                      c. reduce                      d. intensify 10. The acting in that movie was outright impeccable.
a. immaculate                      b. horrendous                      c. obnoxious                      d. macabre

Choose the English word that is derived from the given Latin word.

11. diēs
a. adjourn                      b. digit                      c. dire                      d. condign
12. videō
a. devise                      b. advice                      c. invite                      d. evade 13. focus
a. furnace                      b. foyer                      c. suffocate                      d. fact

29. poison
a. ponō                      b. poscō                      c. sonō                      d. potō
30. redolent
a. oleo                      b. doleō                      c. dolus                      d. rideō

Choose the meaning of the Latin word from which the given English word is derived.

31. amateur
a. year                      b. bad                      c. love                      d. pleasant
32. miniature
a. small                      b. red pigment                      c. diminish                      d. increase 33. perennial
a. year                      b. kidneys                      c. long                      d. shield
34. apartment
a. part                      b. equal                      c. prepare                      d. small 35. pontificate
a. to think                      b. to put                      c. to be able                      d. to make 36. penal
a. feather                      b. almost                      c. bridge                      d. punishment
37. communist
a. equal                      b. wall                      c. gift                      d. world
38. mendacious
a. to order                      b. liar                      c. mind                      d. to measure
39. genocide
a. knee                      b. sprout                      c. race                      d. to wage
40. foible
a. leaf                      b. to weep                      c. to dig                      d. weak

Choose the English word that is derived from the same Latin word as the others.

41.    a. advance                      b. assuage                      c. adjoin                      d. addition
42.    a. attempt                      b. temptation                      c. contemplate                      d. tentacle
43.    a. deify                      b. crucify                      c. reify                      d. classify

