

2014 FJCL State Latin Forum Advanced Derivatives

I. Choose the response which best answers the question, completes the sentence, or means the same as the underlined word.

- The archaeologists exhumed the Pompeian skeletons with great care.
a. to dig up      b. to clean up      c. to sort      d. to bury
- The patients were advised to wear masks due to the tussive nature of their illness.
a. bleeding      b. coughing      c. sneezing      d. shivering
- The crime was likely to produce nothing but hatred and obloquy.
a. acceptance      b. rumor      c. criticism      d. obstruction
- The concierge was punctilious in providing every amenity for his guests.
a. careless      b. harmful      c. incompetent      d. thorough
- The chemist found that the two liquids were immiscible.
a. superheated      b. solid      c. unmixable      d. freezing
- Justin Bieber is a youth of restless and impetuous activity.
a. rash      b. diligent      c. illegal      d. stupid
- Louis obligingly consented to act as a mediator in the matter.
a. contestant      b. scorekeeper      c. moderator      d. candidate
- The water was streaked with trails of light which undulated gently on slight ripples.
a. stood still      b. fluctuated      c. sparkled      d. dimmed
- This is perhaps the fullest extant history of early Rome.
a. extinct      b. missing      c. credible      d. surviving
- The riverbank was fringed with trees of verdant foliage.
a. dead      b. flowery      c. green      d. unusual

II. Choose the English word which is derived from the given Latin word.

- os
a. onerous      b. ornate      c. ossify      d. ostensible
- tingo
a. find      b. conflict      c. reflux      d. fiction

28. penultimate
 a. pono                      b. paene                      c. pendo                      d. per
29. tuition
 a. trado                      b. tueor                      c. traho                      d. teneo
30. boudin
 a. bos                      b. botulus                      c. bonus                      d. bestia

IV. Choose the meaning of the Latin word from which the given English word is derived.

31. impeccable
 a. cattle                      b. transgress                      c. money                      d. chest 32. deciduous
 a. fall                      b. increase                      c. house                      d. ten 33. torturous
 a. raze                      b. turtle                      c. twist                      d. drag
34. admonish
 a. hang                      b. warn                      c. threaten                      d. stay
35. jocularly
 a. delight                      b. laugh                      c. smile                      d. joke
36. assiduous
 a. star                      b. seed                      c. sit                      d. stand 37. florid
 a. warm                      b. bloom                      c. pollinate                      d. spread
38. gregarious
 a. talkative                      b. excellent                      c. flock                      d. silent
39. odious
 a. smelly                      b. road                      c. leisure                      d. hatred
40. dilatory
 a. wide                      b. carry                      c. sink                      d. line

V. Choose the word which does NOT belong by derivation.

41.    a. bonbon                      b. magnanimous                      c. ameliorate                      d. debonair
42.    a. incarnation                      b. charcuterie                      c. charnel                      d. cardinal

- |     |             |                  |                |                 |
|-----|-------------|------------------|----------------|-----------------|
| 43. | a. adhesive | b. hesitate      | c. behest      | d. cohesion     |
| 44. | a. vitriol  | b. vice          | c. vitiate     | d. vicious      |
| 45. | a. formic   | b. informal      | c. uniform     | d. deform       |
| 46. | a. template | b. tempo         | c. tempestuous | d. contemporary |
| 47. | a. desire   | b. inconsiderate | c. sedentary   | d. consider     |
| 48. | a. reproach | b. proximal      | c. probity     | d. propitious   |
| 49. | a. mosquito | b. muscular      | c. murine      | d. mussel       |
| 50. | a. fuselage | b. fuscous       | c. fuze        | d. fusilli      |