

Derivatives II

FJCL State Forum 2018

Choose what best completes the sentence or means the same as the underlined word.

1. The atmosphere at the gathering was rather convivial.
A. somber                      B. rowdy                      C. festive                      D. tense
2. Most schools no longer allow corporal punishment.
A. physical                      B. harsh                      C. public                      D. lengthy
3. The opinionated student was cognizant of the feelings of others.
A. aware                      B. considerate                      C. suspicious                      D. ignorant
4. This particular celebrity had a reputation for being loquacious.
A. talkative                      B. assertive                      C. defensive                      D. snobbish
5. She had mixed feelings about her juvenile lab partner.
A. attractive                      B. aggressive                      C. charming                      D. childish
6. His taciturn nature made it difficult for others to know what he was really thinking.
A. illogical                      B. deceptive                      C. easy-going                      D. reserved
7. How can we ameliorate this?
A. make easier                      B. make more difficult
C. make sweeter                      D. make better
8. Does this dress look too sacerdotal?
A. priestly                      B. matronly                      C. formal                      D. old-fashioned
9. The vespertine breeze was much appreciated.
A. cool                      B. springtime                      C. evening                      D. westerly
10. I had to consider the veracity of his statement.
A. sincerity                      B. believability                      C. authenticity                      D. truthfulness

Choose the English word that is derived from the given Latin word.

11. cano
A. incantation                      B. incandescent                      C. canine                      D. cantankerous
12. lego
A. leaven                      B. lethal                      C. select                      D. relevant
13. bibo
A. bibliography                      B. bibliophile                      C. bible                      D. bibulous

14. hospes
 A. hostile                      B. hose                      C. hotel                      D. hoard
15. mensis
 A. mental                      B. emerge                      C. semester                      D. immense
16. mitto
 A. misanthropy                      B. mission                      C. mistake                      D. mislead
17. mors
 A. mordant                      B. mortify                      C. immoral                      D. remorse
18. parco
 A. transparency                      B. parity                      C. parcel                      D. parsimony
19. vinco
 A. vindicate                      B. conviction                      C. victuals                      D. vicinity
20. lavo
 A. flavor                      B. lavatory                      C. conclave                      D. lava

Identify the Latin word from which the given English word is derived.

21. diurnal
 A. urna                      B. dies                      C. diu                      D. uro
22. misnomer
 A. nomen                      B. mitto                      C. moneo                      D. numen
23. sombrero
 A. umbra                      B. imber                      C. membrum                      D. somnus
24. conjunction
 A. iubeo                      B. iungo                      C. uncus                      D. iacio
25. forest
 A. fors                      B. for                      C. fur                      D. foris
26. demur
 A. mors                      B. mores                      C. mora                      D. morum
27. deserve
 A. servo                      B. sero                      C. servus                      D. severus
28. temporary
 A. emo                      B. potens                      C. tempus                      D. templum
29. pacifist
 A. pax                      B. paucus                      C. patior                      D. pecco

30. sullen
 A. solus                      B. sol                      C. soleo                      D. sollicitus

Choose the meaning of the Latin word from which the given English word is derived.

31. desperate
 A. to hope                      B. equal                      C. to prepare                      D. parent
32. derisive
 A. to bite                      B. to laugh                      C. to take                      D. to stiffen
33. nebulous
 A. cloud                      B. forest                      C. tree                      D. shadow
34. campaign
 A. field                      B. march                      C. seize                      D. foot
35. celerity
 A. certain                      B. dear                      C. famous                      D. quick
36. exculpate
 A. to cultivate                      B. to remove                      C. to dig out                      D. to blame
37. manager
 A. to remain                      B. hand                      C. to warn                      D. to entrust
38. olfactory
 A. to taste                      B. to see                      C. to sense                      D. to smell
39. exhortative
 A. cohort                      B. garden                      C. hour                      D. to urge
40. itinerary
 A. route                      B. again                      C. to keep                      D. to go

Choose the word that does NOT belong by derivation.

41.    A. agenda                      B. agent                      C. acrid                      D. active
42.    A. separate                      B. depart                      C. jeopardy                      D. particle
43.    A. manner                      B. mansion                      C. manacle                      D. manure
44.    A. abound                      B. undulate                      C. redundant                      D. under
45.    A. abject                      B. jutting                      C. adjacent                      D. jet

Choose the word derived from the same Latin root as the given word.

46. rely

A. select

B. ligament

C. leash

D. loyal

47. decay

A. chapter

B. charity

C. chance

D. success

48. agriculture

A. colonial

B. color

C. collar

D. colline

49. optional

A. optimal

B. adopt

C. optical

D. copious

50. homicide

A. intercede

B. cadence

C. incident

D. scissors