FJCL History of the Roman Empire Study Guide

27BC - AD 476 - Empire

Empire begins January 16, 27 BC when Octavian returns power to Senate, they name him Augustus; he is given provinces of Egypt, Gaul, Syria

Julio-Claudian Emperors:

- Augustus 27 BC to AD 14; married Scribonia (daughter Julia), then Livia; family values; set up good administration. Found Rome brick and left it marble. AD 9 Varus loses 3 legions in Germany (Teutoburg Forest vs. Arminius, also called Herman the German).
- Tiberius AD 14 to AD 37 –son of Livia, married to Augustus' daughter Julia, uncle of Germanicus; in exile first to Rhodes, then later in life, he retired to Capri
- Caligula AD 37 41; (Gaius Caligula means little boots he is son of Germanicus who kept him at army camp); killed by Praetorian guard
- Claudius AD 41 54; brother of Germanicus, had a limp and a tic and pretended to be stupid; chosen by Praetorian Guard; conquered Britain. Married to Messalina (mother of Britannicus and Octavia) and Agrippina the younger, his own niece (mother of Nero).
- 5. Nero AD 54 68; real name Lucius Domitius Ahenobarbus; step son of Claudius (mom =Agrippina the younger); married Claudius' daughter Octavia; became emperor around age 16 his tutors were Seneca (stoic philosopher) and Burrus (military man); great fire in AD 64 enabled him to build domus aurea (he blamed the Christians); revolt in Britain by Queen Boudicca; committed suicide

Civil War emperors:

- 1. Galba AD 68-69; Julius Vindex, governor of Gallia backed Galba vs. Nero
- 2. Otho AD 69; named princeps by praetorian guard, Rome
- Vitellius AD 69; named princeps by armies in Lower Rhine (Germany); Vitellius defeated Otho at Cremona
- 4. Vespasian AD 69 79; named princeps by armies in Near East

Flavian Emperors

- 1. Vespasian AD 69 79 started building of Colosseum in AD 72; pay toilets
- Titus AD 79 81 son of Vespasian (captured Jerusalem in AD 70 -- built a triumphal arch); Colosseum dedicated in AD 80; Mt. Vesuvius erupts – August 24, AD 79 – destroys Pompeii, Herculaneum, Stabiae.
- 3. Domitian AD 81 96 son of Vespasian cruel; called "dominus et deus"

- 1 Nerva AD 96 98; elderly senator adopted Trajan
- Trajan AD 96 –117 fought Dacia (built column to commemorate it), Empire at largest extent in 117. Born in Spain. Adopted Hadrian.
- 3 Hadrian AD 117 138 loved travel, architecture and Greek things. Reduced Italy to an imperial province. Built a wall between Britain and Scotland). Adopted Antoninus Pius.
- 4 Antoninus Pius AD 138 161; 900th anniversary of Rome; Adopted M. Aurelius and L. Verus to be co-emperors.
- 5 Marcus Aurelius AD 161 180 co-ruled with Verus from 161 to 169; stoic philosopher
- Commodus AD 180 192 son of Marcus Aurelius; dressed like Hercules; cruel
- Pertinax AD 193
- Didius Julianus AD 193 bought Empire at auction beat out Sulpicianus (the father-in-law of Pertinax).

Severan dynasty: AD 193 – 235

- Septimius Severus AD 193 211 (born in Lepcis Magna = Libya) marched on Rome from his post in Pannonia. Both Clodius Albinus and Pescennius Niger made claims to the title of emperor, but were defeated by 197. His wife was Julia Domna.
- Caracalla -- AD 211 -- 217 (killed brother Geta, co-emperor, in 212); Constitutio Antoniniana 212 -- gave citizenship to all free men in Empire.
- Macrinus AD 217-218 Prefect of Praetorian Guard, killed Caracalla
- Elagabalus, named for a Syrian sun god (his real name was Bassianus) AD 218 222
- Severus Alexander AD 222 235 emperor when he was 13, so grandmother Julia Maesa was his regent and then his mother Julia Mamaea (with a 16 member council to help him rule).

The emperors of the next 50 or so years are referred to as the Barracks Emperors

- Valerian captured by Shapur I (about AD 260)
- Zenobia becomes queen of Palmyra at death of her husband Odenathus (AD 268)
- Aurelian captures Zenobia and her son Vabalathus at Battle of Palmyra in AD 273; Aurelian is given the title Restitutor Orbis restorer of the world (clearly not one of the barracks emperors).

- Diocletian AD 284 305 tetrarchy 4 man rule = Diocletian and Maximianus were Augusti;
 Galerius and Constantius were Caesars. End of the Barracks Emperors.
- Constantine AD 312 337 Beat Maxentius at Milvian Bridge AD 312 (he saw a vision in hoc signo vinces); in AD 313, the Edict of Milan made Christianity legal; Constantine built and moved capital to Constantinople (Byzantium, now called Istanbul); became a Christian at his deathbed.
- Julian (called the Apostate) Edict of toleration in AD 362 ordered reopening of pagan temples and recalling of exiled Christian Bishops.
- Valens defeated by Goths at Battle of Adrianople in AD 378
- Alaric Visigoth who sacked Rome in AD 410
- Actius Roman general who stopped Attila the Hun in AD 451in the Battle of the Catalaunian Plains
- Romulus Augustulus AD 476 last Emperor in west.
- Odoacer becomes king of Italy in AD 476