

2006 FJCL State Latin Forum Derivatives I

Section I. Choose the response which best answers the question, completes the sentence, or means the same as the underlined word.

1. That result has been obviated.
a. proven                      b. prevented                      c. provoked                      d. protested
2. The old gentleman was quite obdurate.
a. weakened                      b. submissive                      c. unyielding                      d. eccentric 3. The doctor gave her a patient a nostrum.
a. cure-all                      b. placebo                      c. nasal spray                      d. sample 4. With which of the following would concupiscence be associated?
a. newlyweds                      b. fish                      c. shells                      d. measurement 5. The picnickers enjoyed the vernal weather.
a. fall                      b. spring                      c. temperate                      d. breezy 6. Which of the following might be saxicolous?
a. squirrel                      b. alligator                      c. crow                      d. lizard
7. The speaker was quite iterative.
a. well-known                      b. well-traveled                      c. repetitious                      d. arrogant 8. That statement was not risible.
a. humorous                      b. credible                      c. audible                      d. judicious

Section II. Choose the English word that is derived from the given Latin word.

9. capio
a. precipice                      b. recapitulate                      c. reciprocate                      d. principle
10. curro
a. insecure                      b. curse                      c. succor                      d. curt 11. oro
a. orient                      b. adore                      c. ordain                      d. exorbitant
12. munus
a. munitions                      b. mundane                      c. municipal                      d. ammunition 13. mirus
a. marvel                      b. mire                      c. mirth                      d. mere 14. mens
a. mentor                      b. amends                      c. mention                      d. demented

30. arrest
 a. to send                      b. to put                      c. throw                      d. to stand 31. menagerie
 a. to stay                      b. to carry on                      c. to drive                      d. middle of 32. niece
 a. grandson                      b. cousin                      c. sister                      d. nurse
33. puissant
 a. doll                      b. beautiful                      c. to think                      d. to be

Section V. Choose the word that does NOT belong by derivation.

34. a. affection                      b. profit                      c. crucify                      d. profit
35. a. train                      b. treatise                      c. travel                      d. tractor
36. a. unanimous                      b. somber                      c. unique                      d. onion
37. a. convenience                      b. venerable                      c. circumvent                      d. souvenir
38. a. victory                      b. avenge                      c. convince                      d. vanquish
39. a. reprimand                      b. compress                      c. sprain                      d. imprison
40. a. regress                      b. surge                      c. dressage                      d. correction
41. a. séance                      b. subsidiary                      c. consist                      d. obsession
42. a. capsule                      b. cadet                      c. captain                      d. biceps

Section VI. Choose the word that comes from the same Latin word as the given word.

43. president
 a. salute                      b. size                      c. express                      d. execute 44. reservoir
 a. observe                      b. deserve                      c. subserve                      d. servile 45. nice
 a. scan                      b. scent                      c. scout                      d. nice 46. respect
 a. spice                      b. sprite                      c. space                      d. spatula 47. portray
 a. important                      b. porch                      c. extract                      d. trivial

48. umbrella
a. lumbar                      b. hombre                      c. brilliant                      d. somber 49. territory
a. deter                      b. tureen                      c. tournament                      d. tertiary 50. privilege
a. eligible                      b. collect                      c. allegation                      d. negligent